

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

OVERVIEW

The Remuneration Committee is responsible for setting remuneration policy and for setting the remuneration of individual directors and senior executives. The Catapult's objective is to ensure a formal and transparent procedure for developing policy on executive remuneration and for fixing the remuneration packages of individual directors, whilst ensuring that executive directors play no part in decisions on their own remuneration. The Remuneration Committee shall determine the remuneration packages sufficient to attract, retain and motivate people of the quality required to run the Catapult successfully, whilst not paying more than is required for this purpose. Accordingly, the board has established the following terms of reference, including the delegation of authority, for the Remuneration Committee.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1. The committee shall comprise at least three members, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors. The chairman of the board may also serve on the committee as an additional member if there are insufficient non-executive directors willing to act on the committee. Members of the committee shall be appointed by the board.
- 1.2. Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3. Appointments to the committee are made by the board and shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up three years, provided the director still meets the criteria for membership of the committee.
- 1.4. The board shall appoint the committee chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the committee chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the board. The chairman of the board shall not be chairman of the committee.
